a. All matter containing visual depictions or child pornography and child erotica, transported, mailed, shipped, and possessed in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2251 and/or 2252; and,

b. All property used and intended to be used to commit and to promote the commission of these violations, including, but not limited to the following:

Item v. One Apple iPhone 11 cellular telephone, bearing serial number F4GF7ATHN72W, including its contents (22-FBI-008006);

Item iv. One Apple iPhone 7 cellular telephone, bearing serial number F18V3CDEHX98, including its contents (22-FBI-008007);

Item iii. One HP 15-cs302od laptop computer, bearing serial number 5CD0296FTP, including its contents (22-FBI-008007);

Item ii. One Toshiba Satellite laptop computer, bearing serial number 3E108691U, including its contents (22-FBI-008008); and Item i. One Western Digital Passport external drive, including its contents (22-FBI-008008).

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 03, 2023) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 85 Marconi Boulevard, Columbus, OH 43215, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Jennifer M. Rausch, 303 Marconi Boulevard, Suite 200, Columbus, OH 43215. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). The <https://www.forfeiture.gov/FilingPetition.htm> website provides access to a standard petition for remission form that may be mailed and the link to file a petition for remission online. If you cannot find the desired assets online, you must file your petition for remission in writing by sending it to Assistant United States Attorney Jennifer M. Rausch, 303 Marconi Boulevard, Suite 200, Columbus, OH 43215. This website provides answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs) about filing a petition for remission.
